

GENERAL PRACTITIONER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

With Associate Professor Ruth McNair

BEST PRACTICE: TRANS & GENDER DIVERSE HEALTH

Training Overview

This training is for General Practitioners seeking to increase their skills, confidence and knowledge in trans and gender diverse health care.

The training is in two parts.

Part A: Online Training Module – 60 mins – 2 Category 2 CPD Points.
'Primary Health Care for Trans, Gender Diverse and Non-Binary People'

For more information and to complete the module click the link below.
<https://nwmpnhn.org.au/health-systems-capacity-building/trans-gp-module/>

Note: Please complete Part A before attending Part B training.

Part B: Face to Face Training – 2 hours – 4 Category 2 CPD Points.
'Advanced Primary Health Care for Trans, Gender Diverse and Non-Binary People'

This training will be delivered by Honorary Associate Professor Ruth McNair.

Learning Objectives and Outcomes

- Describe trans affirmative healthcare, respectful language and terminology.
- Explain clinical guidelines and health pathways for supporting transgender adolescents and adults.
- Demonstrate increased skills and knowledge of initiating and managing hormone therapy.

Discuss the importance of a multidisciplinary approach in supporting transgender individuals and their families.

Date

Thursday 7th March 2019

Time

7.00pm – 9.00pm
(Light meal provided)

Venue

Macedon Ranges Hotel & Spa
652 Black Forest Drive
Macedon, Victoria

Cost

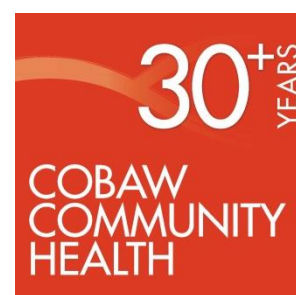

FREE

Accreditation

Both activities together gain a total of 6 Points - Category 2

To register contact:

Cobaw Community Health
e. admin@cobaw.org.au

This activity is supported by Murray PHN, an authorised provider of accredited activities for RACGP and ACRRM.